The Commencement Committee announces that the baccalaureate preacher this year will be the Rev. Henry Hays Sweets, D. D., LL. D., of Louisville, Kentucky. Dr. Sweets has been secretary of the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (Southern) since 1904, and is a recognized leader in interdenominational church activities. Born in Kentucky, he attended Center College at Danville, in that state, from which he was graduated in 1894. His professional course was taken in the Kentucky Theological Seminary. He organized the James Lees Memorial Presbyterian Church in Louisville in 1897 and continued as its pastor until called to his present position. He has filled positions of honor and responsibility in his own denominational body as well as in various inter-church activities. In recent years he was the leader in building up a large endowment for ministerial pensions in the Southern Presbyterian Church. He is a man of scholarly mind and is an illuminating writer and speaker. Honorary degrees have been conferred upon him by his Alma Mater, the Presbyterian College of South Carolina, Austin College in Texas, Southwestern, and Davidson. He is a brother of David M. Sweets, editor of the Christian Observer.

BEAVER AGAIN SUCCUMBS

TO CO-EDS IN NET MATCH

On May 3 the Ursinus girls tennis team won four out of five matches from Beaver. The Beaverettes played some very fine tennis but were able in only one match to overcome Ursinus co-eds powerful team.

Anna Parry was the instigator of quite an unexpected upset when she defeated Billie Strickler 6-1, 6-3.

Monty Blew won the second singles after three exciting sets with Dot Sterner 6-4, 5-7, 6-0.

Bups Francis took her match from Alice Hall with a score of 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Then Billie Strickler and Monty Blew won with some very nice playing the first doubles from Anna Parry and Dot Sterner 6-2, 6-1.

Rhea Wheatley and "Barney" Barnett won the other doubles in two fast sets from Alice Hall and Linda Lamberte 6-2, 6-0.

VARSITY CLUB ENTERTAINS

On last Monday evening the men's student body was given an opportunity to hear the experiences of Charles H. Moran, National League baseball umpire.

The Varsity Club brought Mr. Moran to Ursinus and many students took advantage of this opportunity to learn of some of the queer baseball happenings. He filled his talk with humorous tales and "believe it or not" experiences about himself and other professional baseball players.

Mr. Moran, who has coached football for a number of years has seen all kinds of athletes. He expressed a belief that the advent of college men into the professional baseball field has done much to raise the standards of the modern game.

Evidently college is some benefit to the world even in periods of depression.

Y. W. GIRLS HIKE TO ARCOLA

Thirty-five members of the Y. W. C. A. hiked to Arcola on Friday and camped there all night. They returned after breakfast Saturday morning and claimed they had a wonderful time despite the rainy weather.

VESPERS

Vespers were held on Sunday evening in Bomberger Hall in charge of the residents of Freeland Hall. Clarence R. Robson, '34, conducted the service. Floyd Heller, '33, Clair Hubert, '33, Gilbert J. Bartholomew, '35, and Kenneth W. Masteller, '34, sang "Moments of Prayer." Raymond S. Wolfgang, '32, accompanied the singing at the piano.

BOOKS BY URSINUS GRADS RECEIVE HIGH RATING

Three of the books selected for the "List of Books for College Libraries," by Charles B. Shaw, compiled for the Advisory Group on College Libraries of the Carnegie Corporation, and published by the American Library Association, were written by two graduates of Ursinus college.

The books and their authors are: "Principles and Problems of Government," by C. G. Haines, "History of American Political Thought" and "History of Political Thought," by R. G. Gettell '04. These three books were also chosen for Hester's "Books for Junior Colleges," issued by the same publisher.

Dr. Haines is professor of political science at the University of California, in Los Angeles, and Dr. Gettell is professor of political science at the University of California in Berkeley.

"THE PASSING OF THE THIRD FLOOR BACK," SAT., MAY 14

The Annual Zwing Play to Conclude Mothers' Day Festivities in a Colorful Manner

RICHARD ALLEBACH HAS LEAD

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back" by Jerome K. Jerome will be presented by the Curtain Club on May 14 under the direction of Rebecca Price '31 and Katherine Hand '32. This production is not a comedy nor a sob story, but a tale involving the movements of human nature. It is truly a classic such as students of literature read, but it holds interest for everyone.

The play contains no one lead in its characters, but each person's role builds upon another. The characters represented are people found in everyday life—actual people whom we might find here on our campus.

The scene is laid in a boarding house run by Mrs. Sharp, whose servant girl—really a slave—is Stasia. Among the boarders we find Major and Mrs. Tompkins and their daughter, Vivian, whose hand is sought by Joey Wright, but she loves Christopher Penny. Her parents object to her choice for they have more ambitious desires for her marriage. Then there is Jape Samuels a typical "city slicker," whose one goal is money; Harry Larekman, an entertainer of rather low calibre; Miss Kite, 40 who tries to be 20; Mrs. De Hooley, a newly rich woman, who thinks her fine manners give her a place in society. We find these people are lost in their selfishness and thoughts of themselves until "The Third Floor Back" arrives. This man by his influence—passing as it were—changes the boarders into really different people. They become thoughtful of others, forget their selfish aims and desires and put aside their pettiness. They learn to live for one another and to become something

"THE CLEAN UP" TO BE PRESENTED ON FRI., JUNE 3

Barry Connors' "The Clean Up" a fast moving, mirth provoking comedy, involving politics has been selected by the senior class as the play to be given commencement week-end. This production will be staged the evening of Class Day, June 3, taking the place of the junior oratorical contest which has here-to-fore occupied that date. This play, which first appeared under the title of "So This Is Politics," had a very successful run in New York. Mr. Connor the author has also written other successes including "The Patsy" and "Apple-sauce."

Miss Roberta Frantz is head of the play committee and will manage the production. Mr. Michael has been secured as coach.

Tryouts will take place this evening, and those in charge are desirous of having a large number of candidates. The cast will be selected by a special committee.

PAGEANT BEGINS AT 3 P. M.

The May Pageant will begin at 3 p. m., daylight saving time. Neatly engraved programs containing a synopsis and list of characters will be on sale at the price of fifty cents each.

GALA PROGRAM PLANNED FOR ANNUAL MAY DAY

Pageant, Banquet, and Play to Feature Among Springtime Festivities On Saturday

LOIS STRICKLER QUEEN OF MAY

The week-end of the 14th of May will be another brilliant one here at Ursinus. Many alumni are expected back for the gala events, as well as the parents and friends of the students.

Saturday is May Day. This is one of the biggest affairs of the year, and is typically an Ursinus holiday. Although everyone is invited to attend the celebration, the day is devoted to mothers.

Much time and labor is being spent on preparations by the students, and many thanks are due Mrs. Ogden who is training the dance groups and directing the pageant. Each year the pageant is an original one written by a student, thus adding more interest to the event. During the pageant comes the crowning of the May Queen who has previously been elected by popular vote.

A special banquet for the mothers has been arranged at which time they will have an opportunity to see a touch of student life as it goes on here at Ursinus.

The crowning event of the day will be a play "Passing of the Third Floor Back." The cast for this has been practicing for several weeks and it promises to be a fitting ending for a week-end of fun.

URSINUS HOST TO SCHOOLS OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Boys and girls from all parts of Montgomery County journeyed to Collegeville on Saturday, May 7, to participate in the eighth annual Montgomery County Play Festival. Approximately 5000 children and grown-ups were the guests of the College for the day. Nearly every grammar, junior high, and high school in the county was represented.

Ambler High School won the track and field honors in the Class A group, and broke three records, only to have one of them again broken. Springfield won first honors in the girls' group. In Class B Pennsburg came in first for boys and Schwenksville for girls. Upper Pottsgrove and Worcester represented Class C winners, the former taking the laurels for the boy's group and the latter for the girls.

Academic events included: music, declamation, spelling, exhibits, and other fine contests.

LAUREL BLOSSOM PRINCESS CHOSEN BY WOMEN STUDENTS

At a recent W. S. G. A. mass meeting, Betty Luther '34 was chosen to represent Ursinus at the Laurel Blossom Festival which is held annually in June in the Pocono Mountains. Representatives from twelve other colleges will attend. The festival is sponsored by the Stroudsburg Business Men's Association, and the "princesses" will be the guests of Governor Gifford Pinchot.

FROSH GIRLS FROLIC TO AMUSE UPPER CLASS CO-EDS

On Tuesday, May 3, the Freshman girls held a party on the jolly "School Ship" for the Sophomore and upper-class coeds. Entertainment was furnished by the Freshmen crew.

A chorus of "four sailors and their sweethearts" opened the program. Following this three of the girls harmonized on some of the latest song hits, and another chorus gave a Hornpiper's dance. To close the show a skit entitled "The Fatal Quest" was presented. The characters were: the King, Jane Stephens; the devoted Queen, Mildred File; the blushing Princess, Ruth Burrows; the manly Duke, Heradiah Newsome; the kitten, Elizabeth Wilson; the curtains, Dorothy Barr and Leila Amole. The guests danced between each skit and refreshments were served after the finale. The campus song, sung in the dark, climaxed the affair.

Virginia Meadowcroft, general chairman, and Dorothy Patterson, program chairman made possible the enjoyable evening.

SPORT DANCE

Attention students! The student council has arranged a sport dance for your enjoyment. Four hours of dancing to a good orchestra and a general good time, all for one dollar.

The "Parodians" will furnish the rhythm and the rest will be up to you. Everyone is asked to come in informal dress, even the girls are to forget their finery for one evening and come dressed for comfort.

The committee in charge of the arrangements includes: Anthony Zicardi '33, Gladys Ulrich '33, Mary Crawford '32, and Martin Tolomeo '34.

Don't forget your dates on Friday the 13th.

RUNNERS FAIL AGAINST

DREXEL AND WEST CHESTER

The Inability to Place Men in Pole Vault and Weights Proves Disastrous

TROPP TWICE HIGH SCORER

Drexel Meet

In a dual meet with the Drexel track team Saturday in Philadelphia, the Ursinus runners were decisively trounced. The Bear aggregation garnered four first places outright and a tie for a fifth compared with nine firsts and a tie for the Drexel cohorts. Final tabulations read: Drexel, 79; Ursinus, 47.

The "big three," namely—Tropp, Paul, and Steele, again bore the brunt of the burden for the Collegeville representatives. Together, they accounted for 31 of the team's 47 points, of these Tropp had to his credit 13, made up by 4 second places and a third. This made him the high scorer of the meet. Bill Steele, besides easily winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes, won a third in the broad jump to make a total of 11 points for his efforts. Captain Paul tied for first in the high jump at the distance of 5 feet 10 inches and took second in the broad jump to realize 7 points.

Most fatal to the Ursinus cause were the high hurdle, discus, and pole vault events, for in these issues Dr. Rubins proteges failed to garner a single point, all three places in these events going to Drexel. However, the Ursinus men, too, showed some concentrated strength by gaining two places in every event in which they won a first.

Summary:
100 yard dash—Won by Steele, U; Tropp, U; Van Horn, D. 10.4 secs.
120 yard high hurdles—Won by Brevda, D; Test, D; Wright, D. 16.8 secs.
1 mile run—Won by Kramer, D; Lockhart, D; Cotteta, U. 4 min. 50.4 secs.
Shot put—Won by Finnerty, D; Tropp, U; Bear, D. 39 feet 23 inches.
440 yard dash—Won by Fisher, D; Tropp, U; Christ, D. 54.8 secs.
Pole vault—Won by (tie for first) Fisher, Shaffer, Burt, Crockett, D. 10 feet.
Two mile run—Won by Sautter, U; Sutton, U; Althouse, D. 10 min. 56 secs.
220 yard low hurdles—Won by Schoenhut, D; Brevda, D; Shade, U. 27.6 secs.
Discus—Won by Baer, D; Martin, D; Brevda, D. 115 feet, 5 inches.
Broad jump—Won by Balentine, D; Paul, U; Steele, U. 20 feet, 8 1/2 inches.
220 yard dash—Won by Steele, U; Tropp, U; Van Horn, D. 23.3 secs.
880 yard dash—Won by Christ, D; Kramer, D; Cotteta, U. 2 min. 10.6 secs.
High jump—Won by (tie for first) Paul, U; Smith, D; third, Trumpy, D. 5 feet, 10 inches.
Javelin—Won by Miller, U; Brevda, D; Tropp, U. 147 feet, 3 inches.

West Chester Meet

The Ursinus College track team inaugurated its 1932 season by receiving a severe lacing from the hands of West Chester Wednesday, May 4, at West Chester. The strong West Chester squad took the lead from the first event, never to have its margin even threatened by the Collegeville representatives. When the final event was over the small Ursinus squad saw an 88 to 38 score

GRIDDERS START TO DRILL

On Thursday past, assistant coach "Horse" Chase issued a call for spring football training. Due to the fact that the recent conference ruling was changed, allowing spring practice, Coach Chase is taking full advantage of this and by the use of calisthenics, is trying to prepare the "gridders" for a strenuous season.

All those candidates, not engaging in baseball or track were present. Quite a few of this year's Frosh squad reported and are quite anxious to make a good showing.

RUTGERS AND SWARTHMORE TAKE VARSITY'S MEASURE

Opponents Manage to Have One Big Inning to Assure Victory in Each Game

EACHUS PITCHES BEST GAME

Rutgers Game

Rutgers University set down Ursinus for their sixth defeat on Saturday to the tune of 4-1. It was by far the best played game of the Bear's season, both from the pitching and from the fielding standpoint. Jack Eachus, transformed first baseman pitched a nice game, but had the misfortune of running up against four hit pitching by Jack Liddy, Scarlet hurler.

Rutgers scored first in the second inning when Herma doubled and Diehl's throw to first of Tarcher's grounder was a trifle wild. That ended the scoring until the seventh stanza when Shuman reached first by virtue of an error, was advanced to second on Diehl's sacrifice and scored from second on Scholl's long fly to left field.

In the eighth, Heenan, Dunlop and Horton all singled and Wiggins scored two with a Texas Leaguer. Lodge, made a beautiful running catch of Herman's deep fly to center, but Horton scored from third after the catch.

Swarthmore Game

Ursinus was defeated by Swarthmore College on May 4 mainly thru the efforts of Captain Howard Sipler. The Swarthmore leader, aside from the fact that he limited the Bears to 7 hits, garnered for himself 3 hits, of which one was a hard hit home run.

Again our pitching staff was responsible for the fifth consecutive loss, Seiple, Coates and Weisenflue taking their turn on the mound. Weisenflue showed a bit of promise when he held the Quakers to one run in the final four innings.

Lodge and Scholl were the main cogs in the offense, getting 2 hits apiece. Lodge hit a home run and one of Scholl's hits was a triple,

FRESHMEN WIN AGAIN, SWAMPING PERKIOMEN, 12-6

Yearlings Make it Four in a Row as They Score Six in First to Romp Over Prep Boys

The Ursinus Frosh continued their winning ways, by trouncing the previously undefeated Perkiomen Prep team by the decisive score of 12-6. Don Mowrey gained his second triumph of the year, pitching a beautiful game, and having control of the situation at all times.

The Cubs were not slow in starting, for they immediately landed on Lockword, the Preppers pitcher for three hits and six runs. Mowrey held the opposition scoreless until the fourth inning when they garnered one hit and one run. Fisher's home run resulted in a score in the second stanza.

Mowrey experienced trouble in but one inning, the eighth, when three hits and an error permitted three runs to be scored. Coach Sterner is certainly

Editorial Comment

WERE YOU THERE?

The world is full of "Kibitzers." Many of them are in colleges and, as a college, Ursinus has its quota of these cranks, know it alls, braggarts, reformers, and self elected leaders. Everyday someone attempts to criticise some College department, or complains about the manner in which the school is administered, or, perhaps, this supposedly intelligent individual will merely comment on the inactivity of the College as a whole.

Undoubtedly, there are weak spots in our various departments and at times the administration makes mistakes, but it is highly improbable that any one of these cynics could make any constructive criticisms.

No, we are not referring to the fellow that lives across the hall, or the girl that is always elevating some other school. It is to you, the person, that went home last week end, those that went to a movie when the last play was given, and those of you that moaned about an evening wasted when the last debate was held. Perhaps you were not an offender in any of these cases but at innumerable times during the past year you have failed to take advantage of the excellent opportunities offered to you for recreation.

You are probably thinking that this is a lot of "ballyhoo" and that you have a legitimate excuse for missing many of the College functions. It is probable that a few do have plausible excuses but most of us have none. Money is no hindrance because the majority of the events are free. All sporting contests, debates, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. programs, and many other entertaining affairs are paid for in your College fees. And as individuals we spend more money for cigarettes, candy, movies, and unnecessary incidentals than it would cost to attend all of the dances and plays.

Lack of interest for some particular thing may be excusable but the best way to overcome this is to create an interest within yourself for those objectionable things. No one likes anything as well the first time as he does after he becomes better acquainted with the rules and regulations governing this new form of amusement.

It does not seem necessary to inquire deeper into this maze of feeble excuses. Certainly everyone will recognize where he has been at fault and will attempt in some way to remedy these weaknesses so that from now on everything will be put over in a greater Ursinus manner.

CONGRATULATIONS—'32

To the editor, business manager, and staff of the 1932 Ruby we wish to express an appreciation for this picturization of Ursinus as it is today. Your class is to be congratulated upon the success that has accompanied your efforts on this record of the College activities.

OUR MOTHERS

Yesterday the world paid homage to its mothers and to many students this day should have been of particular significance. We dare say that a large majority of us are here only, because of some sacrifices by our mothers. Too often our own egoism forces us to forget our greatest benefactors but once each year the College sets aside a day for the entertainment of our mothers. You may not think of this day as an excellent opportunity to show your mothers that you do appreciate their efforts to give you an education. But we are sure that the best way in which we can pay a part of our debt to them is to bring them to the campus and let them live with us for a day as we live during the school year.

THE MEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Tuesday, May 17, the men students of Ursinus will go to the polls to vote for their governing body. This annual election merits serious attention and consideration.

The various classes have met and nominated candidates for the positions and the list of nominees will be posted on the bulletin boards and in the dormitories one week prior to the election.

The purpose of the nominee list is to give every student a chance to consider and to prevent hasty "steam-roller" elections. It is now time for the men students to give a little thought to the matter and to pick the persons who will most nearly represent their wishes and ideals.

It is because of this that we are urging all to take the matter seriously and come out to vote when the election takes place. If every member votes then there can be no talk of "minority—politics." A little item for your diary—Men's Student Council elections, Tuesday, May 17.

WORLD POLITICS DISCUSSED

The International Relations Club presented a program of current events on Monday evening, May 2 in room 7. Clinton Bigelow '33 arranged and presided over the following program.

Problems of Germany—Louella Mullin '33.

The League of Nations—John Clark '34.

Chinese-Japanese Relations—Harold Houck '34.

Internal Conditions in Japan—Aram Y. Parunak '33.

Russo-Japanese Relations — Ione Hausmann '35.

Philippine Independence—Ruth Riegel '32.

The Pan-American Union—Jane Price '32.

Problems of the St. Lawrence Waterway—Nadine Jones '34.

The Sales Tax—Eugene Miller '33.

Each topic was well given in a brief but full summary. The privilege of questioning the speakers was given to the audience, who took advantage of it and so drew out other points and new thoughts for discussion.

Y. W. C. A. HAS ITS POETS

The co-eds turned poetic on Wednesday evening when they attended the Y. W. C. A. meeting. Original poems and favorite selections of more famous poets were read before the assembled group.

Jane Stephen '35, chairlady for the evening, opened the meeting by reading Alexander Pope's "Universal Prayer." This was followed by a series of original poems read by their creators; Dorothy Patterson '35; Ruth Hamma '35; Sara Pfahler '34, and Keturah Donalson '33.

Many famous poems by such poets as Sara Teasdale, Grace Crowell, Charles Musser, Rudyard Kipling, and Joyce Kilmer were presented by various members of the association. And with the singing of "Trees" by Iris Lutz '33 the program was concluded.

The Tower Window

THE financing of a college education is something that should receive attention long before the student's freshman year. Indeed this should be a major consideration in every family in which there are children from the time the latter first make their appearance in the home. The gradual building up of a financial reserve for use when at length "bright college years" begin is an adventure in thrift which will be good for any household, even though it should turn out that the children are not "college minded." If they turn immediately to some commercial or industrial activity, the money laid by will be equally valuable in giving them their start in life.

How many a student whose college career has been one constant struggle against poverty, has wished that while he was growing up there might have been growing up beside him an ever increasing fund which in his student days might yield him that modicum of freedom so essential to successful study. The reality of this haunting wish of the self-supporting student cannot be pictured too vividly before the minds of parents. Time was when college going was exceptional in the American family, but the time is surely coming when it will be exceptional not to go to college. In this democratic country it should be the hope for every child that his youth shall be rounded out in college, and with his advent into life should begin the financial program that will provide for his college education.

A few days ago the father of two bright little children handed me a pamphlet setting forth the plan by which such financial provision can be made by means of insurance. This column does not exist to promote any particular life insurance company, but a short term endowment insurance policy made to mature at the time the child will reach college age with such collateral features as may be desired, constitutes an admirable scheme for a college student fund. If taken on the life of the parent, the fund will be provided even in case of the latter's death in the interim.

Of course, any scheme of systematic saving is to be commended for the purpose we are advocating, but a system that requires regular contributions by contract, as in insurance, generally succeeds better than the attempt to build up a fund by voluntary appropriations made in a haphazard way from one's earnings.

E. S. FRETZ HONORED

E. S. Fretz, College treasurer, was honored by the Board of Directors of the Pottstown Hospital when they chose him to head the activities of the institution for another year.

Mr. Fretz served in this position last year and his reelection on May 5 is proof that he performed his duties in an excellent manner.

SENIORS MAKE FINAL PLANS

The Senior Class is now busily engaged in making plans for its last few weeks as a part of the College. At a class meeting on Thursday, May 5, the members of the class decided to retain their class colors of maroon and white and to bring their college days to a grand climax with a play on June 3.

A committee consisting of Leroy Burkhart, Florence Cornell and Jacob Weaver was appointed to write a class motto.

Financial statements from the business manager of the Ruby and the treasurer of the class were read and the class was urged to help in every way possible to make the year as great a financial success as it has been an intellectual one.

WENNER PLANS YEAR FOR Y. M.

Jerome Wenner '33 talked of the future of the Y. M. C. A. at Ursinus College when he spoke to this group last Wednesday evening. Better programs, more usefulness, and a larger group were stressed as the important factors which need the most attention in order to assure a more successful year.

Following this short talk James M. Wharton '34 told of his plans for making the Y. a larger group. Next year everyone will be a member and it is hoped that this will aid in making this one of the most active organizations on the campus.

Good Printing

The traditions of the printing trade are noble, and to live up to them requires skill, education, and experience. High ideals are cramped by the influence of commercialism; but there is no reason why life, individuality—something above the ordinary—cannot be infused into the everyday printed matter. This is our task.

"ELECTRIC BULLETS"

THE result of exhaustive wind-tunnel tests of conventional trolley car models revealed that at speeds of 70 and 80 miles per hour, 70 per cent of the total power was consumed in overcoming air resistance. Streamlining saves approximately 20 per cent of the power.

When the Philadelphia and Western Railway Company decided to replace its cars with faster and more efficient equipment, it chose "electric bullets"—new streamlined cars—each powered by 4 G-E 100-hp. motors. The cars, constructed of aluminum alloy, with tapered noses and tails, are much lighter in weight and capable of greater operating efficiency.

In developing transportation apparatus, college-trained General Electric engineers have conducted extensive tests to improve operating conditions. On land, on sea, and in the air, to-day's equipment is safer, swifter, more dependable, and more comfortable.

which drove in the first Ursinus run. Diehl made a spectacular catch of what seemed a Texas leaguer. Paris's play around the hot corner was nothing short of spectacular, garnering 6 assists for himself. The team as a whole played a fine defensive game and their offense would ordinarily have been sufficient to win had the moundsmen been able to hold the Quakers.

chalked against them.

Despite the overwhelming margin of the victors, individual honors for the meet were captured by an Ursinus man—Wally Tropp. His garnering of 16 points was a feature of the day. The brawny sophomore placed first in two events, namely—the 440 yard dash and the shot put, besides taking second places in the javelin and discus throwing events.

Captain Alvin Paul and Jake Shade were the only other members from the Bear camp to account for first places. Paul leaped 21 feet, 1 inch to take his specialty, the broad jump, after leaping 5 feet, 8 inches in the high jump issue to gain a second place. In winning his event Jake Shade performed splendidly.

The closest race of the day was the 220 yard dash, in which Bill Steele was nosed out only by inches.

"THE PASSING OF THE THIRD FLOOR BACK," SAT., MAY 14

worthwhile. "The Third Floor Back" as the man is known from the room which he occupies is really a stranger to everyone, but the action centers about him. Who he is—we or they do not know; where he comes from or why. But his influence is powerful, once there it stays.

Jerome K. Jerome, the author, has never committed himself as to who the man really is or from what person he took the character. The "stranger" is a touch which if it were not there, would be missed.

The cast is as follows:

Mrs. Sharp, Marjorie Rittenhouse '32; Stasia, Emily Roth '32; Mrs. Tompkins, Evelyn Henricks '32; Major Tompkins, J. Boyd Coates '32; Vivian, their daughter, Dolores Quay '34; Miss Kite, Beatrice Trattner '32; Mrs. De Hooley, Dorothy Patterson '35; Joey Wright, Elmer Morris '33; Harry Larkom, Robert Gible '33; Jape Samuels, Craig Johnston '35; Christopher Penny, George Givant '35; "The Third Floor Back", Richard Allebach '32.

A good cast and a fine play will provide an enjoyable evening for you. Reserve your seat and be sure to see this outstanding performance.
